ABOUT all this year's crop of tobacco along Eagle Creek, Brown County, Ohio, has already been sold at prices ranging from 20 to 25 cents per pound. Only one crop was sold at a less price than 20 cents, and that brought 15, says the Georgetown Democrat.

JAMES C. ROGERS, Sheriff of Fayette County, and Miss Lizzie Treacy were married Thursday at Lexington. The bride is a daughter of Colonel B. J. Treacy, the well-known turfman. The wedding was one of the most brilliant at that place for some time.

A MORE mirth-provoking or thoroughly enjoyable performance than that given by that prince of comedians, Sol Smith Russell, will not be offered again in our city for some time. Take our friendly advice and go to the opera house on next Wednesday night by all means.

A MINISTER MARRIED.

Rev. Z. T. Cody and Miss Belle Anderson Wedded at Louisville.

The Courier-Journal, of Louisville, says: "Rev. Z. T. Cody, of Mayslick, and Miss Belle Anderson, of this city, were married in Portland Baptist Church at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening by Rev. G. W. Hurt, of Elizabethtown, in the presence of a large number of friends. There were no attendants, save the ushers, who were H. W. Tribble, A. T. Roberson, A. J. Dickson and J. T. Tucker, of the Baptist Theological Seminary. Thursday morning at 7 o'clock, Mr. and Mrs. Cody left for their future home at Mayslick.

"The groom is a graduate of the Baptist Theological Seminary, and received very high honors at the commencement last year. He is at present in charge of the Mayslick Baptist Church, and is spoken of as one of the most promising young ministers in the State. His bride, Miss Anderson, has for some time been a teacher at the Grayson street school, and was very popular throughout the West End."

The newly-wedded arrived at Mayslick Thursday evening, where a reception was tendered them by the members of the congregation of which Mr. Cody has charge.

A Pleasant Evening Promised.

A musicale will be given next Monday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Burgess, on West Second street. The programme is made up of choice selections from leading authors, and those who attend are promised a pleasant evening. As the object of the entertainment is to contribute to some fund of the Baptist Church, it will no doubt be largely attended. The following is the programme announced for the occasion: "La Souvenir," overture for violin and piano. Miss Berry and Mr. Roseau. "Dreams," song, with piano and violin accompaniment. "Dornrochen," piano solo. Haydn. Miss Berry. INTERMISSION. "Spring's Awakening," duet, piano and violin. Miss Berry and Mr. Roseau. "Silken Bands," song. Blischoff. Miss Wheeler. "Selections," piano and violin. Beethoven. Miss Berry and Mr. Roseau.

Close of a Successful Revival.

The protracted meeting which had been in progress for the past two weeks in Old Stone Church on Lawrence Creek closed Thursday night. A deep interest has been aroused and the meeting would have continued longer, perhaps, but Rev. S. W. Peeples, who had been visiting the pastor was compelled to return to his charge at Lancaster. There were twenty-eight additions in all. A number of the converts will be baptized at 1:30 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, preaching by the pastor, Rev. J. D. Redd, immediately afterwards.

"Splitting Hairs."

On appeal for fifty dollars more salary, a jury gave Judge Tilton thirty-five dollars of that amount. The jury was out some time, some favoring the amount claimed—three hundred and twenty five dollars—and some backing the Magistrate at two hundred and seventy-five dollars. A compromise was effected at three hundred and ten dollars, thus saving the county fifteen dollars.—Robertson County Democrat.

A Bean Supper.

A bean supper will be given by Joseph Heiser Post No. 13, G. A. R., at their hall in the court house to-night November 12th. Admission 10 cents. Beans, hot coffee and hard-tack free. Several articles left from Monumental Fair will be disposed of. All parties interested are requested to be present. Everybody invited. Music. Refreshments.

THE directors of the South Side Railroad held a meeting at Maysville last week and decided not to consolidate the road with the Elizabethtown, Lexington & Big Sandy, as was proposed some time ago. It will retain its old name of Maysville & Big Sandy, and it is the intention to have it completed and in running order from Ashland to Maysville by the middle of December.—Portsmouth Tribune.

JUDGE MENZIES, of the Covington Chancery Court, has given judgment against the Bowler estate of that city for over $23,000 back taxes. The indications are that the judgment will be affirmed in the case of appeal, and the State will be that much ahead. H. P. Whitaker, Auditor's agent, will get 25 per cent. commission on the sum named as his fee.

JEFFERSON COUNTY shipped fourteen new convicts to the penitentiary Thursday and Warren County has fifteen to add to the number in a few days. The courts seem to be getting in their work rather rapidly of late. If they keep it up the State will have to push the new "pen" to completion.

HECHINGER & CO.'S 'AD.'

IT IS TELLING.

When we advertise that we make a special sale of Clothing, regardless of profits, in fact regardless of prices, the people know that we keep our word. Ask the hundreds that loaded up in our house during this week. One and all will say, the best for the least money we ever bought. Gentlemen, we shall keep this thing up for another week at least. We have the goods for you. It will not take us long to convince you that you cannot get such goods and at such prices elsewhere as you will from us. One word more before going to press. * It is this: In this age every intelligent person that desires to buy, no matter what, wants the best article that can be procured for the money. Your rainments that you wear not only for your own comfort and satisfaction but also for the admiration of others, you should be particular in the selection. Look where you will, then come to us, and we will satisfy you that for the least money we will give you the best goods, not only in Quality, but also in Style and Finish. Truly yours,

HECHINGER & CO.,

SERVICES at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. in the M. E. Church to-morrow. Sunday school at 9:30. The sermon at night will be on "The Leopard Beasts that Succeeded the Dragon." The Rev. T. Hanford, having given profound study to the book of Revelation, makes these subjects interesting to old and young.

MASSSES will be celebrated at St. Patrick's Church to-morrow as follows: 7:30. At the 9 o'clock mass a sermon will be given especially for the young people. At the 10 o'clock mass a special sermon for married men, and at 3 p. m. a sermon for single or unmarried men exclusively. All persons are cordially invited to the respective sermons.

THE Court of Appeals has affirmed the case of Stickrod against the Commonwealth. The case was taken up from Fleming County. Stickrod is a distiller of that county, and was tried some time ago on several indictments for violating the prohibition law. He was convicted, and the fines against him were rather heavy ones, taken all together. His attorneys argued that the law was unconstitutional, but Judge Cole decided otherwise, and his ruling has been affirmed. This settles the matter.

CROWDS continue to attend the mission services at St. Patrick's Church and listen attentively to instructive sermons delivered by the Redeemptorist fathers. Last night Father Mullane enlightened his audience on the subject of Confession. The order of exercises for to-night are as follows: The consecration of boys and men to the Blessed Virgin Mary, short instruction, Holy Rosary, sermon and Benediction of Blessed Sacrament. Sunday night the mission will close after the usual services followed by the paper blessing.
